Las Vegas, NV (December 14, 2013) – Dr. Paul Prosper, CEO of Prosperous Investments, LLC, was a Presenter at the 2013 Economic Summit and Student Leadership Conference, an annual event that is organized by the Kappa Xi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., the Uplift Foundation of Nevada (a 501c3), the Theta Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the 20 Pearls Foundation (a 501c3), the Las Vegas Urban League Young Professionals and Urban League Guild.

The event was attended by 205 Clark County 6 – 12th grade students and parents. The event featured 50 minute workshops on various topics such as financial management, social media discipline, pro's and cons, Entrepreneurship 101, college financial aid and Dr. Prosper's session titled The Military as an Economic Option.

“The students and parents were very interested and attentive”, said Dr. Prosper, “they asked many great questions!”

Dressed in his United States Air Force Service Dress uniform, Major/Dr. Prosper achieved his objective. The purpose of his The Military as an Economic Option presentation was to expose students to the economic, training, travel, medical, retirement and financial benefits of a military career.

“It was great to have Dr., Major Prosper with us here as a Presenter at the Economic Summit this year”, said Jerry Holliday, an event organizer. “His presentation was extremely informative and it exposed students and parents to information about the military that was invaluable and possibly a real career option for the students in attendance.”

Dr. Prosper has been involved as a volunteer at this event in previous years as a member of Kappa Xi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity prior to his relocation. This year was Paul's first time as a Presenter at the event and he hopes to be invited back to be a presenter in the future.
