Prosperous Investments Treats Upward Bound Students, at-Risk Youth & Moore Tornado Victims to an NFL Game!

Moore, OK (November, 2013) – The Prosperous Investments Dallas Cowboys vs. Minnesota Vikings Bus-trip, Tailgate and Game Experience was a smashing success! This was the second installment of two all-inclusive trips to Cowboys Stadium to see an NFL game. The first installment was on 8 September 2013 for a Cowboys vs. New York Giants game.

The November event had some very special guests who were treated to a Prosperous Investments all-inclusive experience. As a reward for their hard work in school, 13 students from the University of Central Oklahoma's (UCO) Upward Bound Central Prep Program attended the trip. Other VIP guests on the trip were a family that lost their home to the devastating May 2013 Tornado two brothers from a local "Big Brother" program.

"This was my first NFL game and I enjoyed it!", said Valerie Cumming of Crooked Oak High School. "The tailgate food was wonderful and the game was even better!"

The Upward Bound Central Prep Program is a college-preparation program designed to encourage students to develop the academic skills and motivation necessary for success in post-secondary education. The program focuses on providing equal opportunity for economically challenged students and prospective first-generation college students. For more information on UCO's Upward Bound, contact Program Director, Ms. Pamela L. Edwards (405-974-3602).

The special guests all had a great time at their first ever NFL game. The bus ride was smooth, the food and tailgate was great and the exciting game went down to the final play. Due to lots of positive feedback, Prosperous Investments may continue these all-inclusive events next season.

"Going to the game was a whole new experience for me, said Upward Bound student, Michael Almanza. "I finally got the chance to see my favorite NFL team and I am thankful I was given that opportunity"
