Oklahomans to Attend Presidential Inauguration via Bus Trip

OKLAHOMA CITY (December 10, 2012) – Prosperous Investments, LLC has organized a bus trip from OKC to Washington D.C. to give Oklahomans an opportunity to experience President Barak Obama's 2nd term Inauguration Ceremony. The trip begins in OKC on Saturday 19 January when the bus departs OKC and return to OKC on Tuesday 22 January.

Village Tours & Travel is the company hired to provide the transportation in their Deluxe Coach luxury bus complete with free Wi-Fi, electric plug-ins, DVD player, 5 TVs and a bathroom. There are 54 seats available on the bus.

"I missed the inauguration in 2009 because I was deployed in Baghdad. I do not want to miss this opportunity." said Prosperous Investments, LLC founder Dr. Paul Prosper. "I also want to provide an opportunity for others to also witness this historic event."

The group will arrive at the Hampton Inn in Winchester VA, & spend the night of January 20th there while enjoying free in-room Wi-Fi and a free hot breakfast. After an early wake-up on the 21st, the group will check-out the hotel and board the bus for a ride to the Vienna Metro train station. From there, the group will take the Metro to the National Mall Metro Station. Once in D.C., the group will enjoy the inauguration swearing-in ceremony, the President's inauguration speech, view the inauguration parade and explore Washington D.C. for a few hours. The group will later reconvene at the Vienna Metro station at a pre-determined time to board the bus and return to OKC.

"I'm really excited about this trip! I have received a great deal of positive feedback and appreciation for organizing trip, which alone makes this trip worth the effort to organize."
